

Readiness Questions

(Some adapted from Center Church, Tim Keller)

Those considering being in a journey group, prayerfully consider & honestly answer these questions:

1. How are you showing willingness to seek God with all your heart?
2. How do you respond to taking rebukes, chastening, and instruction from others? (Hopefully given with gentleness!)
3. Will you refrain from repeating confidential things discussed?
4. Are you willing to use your spiritual gifts to edify others in the group?
5. What could be an idol(s) or inordinate loves that need to be forsaken in your life?
6. How clear is your spiritual awareness of your standing in Christ?
7. In what ways do you find yourself having a less judgmental spirit toward weaker Christians, those who fall or are self-deceived?
8. How is your conscience growing more tender to convict you of the first motions of sin in the mind, such as the onset of resentment, worry, pride, or jealousy, etc.?
9. What signs of spiritual growth in the fruit of the Spirit are you seeing?
10. What are you hoping for in this time of journeying together?
